Memorial Mass

Wolves Club Memorial Mass honoring the deceased members of the Ellwood City Wolves Club was held on January 24, 2010 at the Holy Redeemer Parish. Chairman Cosmo Morabito arranged for the mass and breakfast following the service. Ray Santillo and Bob Morabito served on Cosmo's committee. Chairman Cosmo would like to thank all the members involved in developing a list of deceased members. Over fifty members and guests attended the memorial mass.

Rec Youth Wrestling Tournament

REC Riverside Ellwood City Youth Wrestling Tournament was held in Ellwood City on January 13, 2010. Once again, Members of the Ellwood City Wolves Club offered to man the food booth, giving the parents the opportunity to watch their children wrestle. John Maielli and his committee and workers were able to raise over $800.00 for the Youth Wrestling Program. Thank you to all our members that joined John in the kitchen and a special thanks to John Katsasdas for donating hot dogs, buns and chili and to Toni Rutter for making our job easier by being there. The tournament scheduled for February 13, was cancelled due to the weather.

Ellwood City's "Toast To The Library"

The Ellwood City Wolves pledged $10,000.00 to the Library. Ray Santillo and his committee consisting of Josh Ottaviani, Sam Teolis, Rob Magnifico, Bob Petti, Bob Morabito, Lynn Smilek, Mike DeOtto and Martin "Doc" Barsotti did what I believe was the impossible on January 30, 2010 by raised over $12,700.00 to honor our commitment.

The following Purveyors of Ellwood City provide their homemade wines; Al Geniviva, Norman Laszlo, Bellissimo & Campese Family Vino, Altmam Family Winery, Bambino Agostinelli, Petti La Famiglia Vino, Vino DeLisio La Famiglia, Vino La Famiglia Parente, Mun's Vineyards, Vino De Fratella Santillo, La Famiglia Barsotti, La Famiglia DeOtto/Russo and a special treat for beer drinkers Wally Brau Helles Lager. This would not have been possible without the help from; Joe & Mary Jo Carusone, Ellwood City Sons of Italy, DJ John DiBuono, McElwain Motors, our members who came to work and special ladies who are always baking.

The Ellwood City Wolves also thank all the businesses that sent their goods to help feed our guests. Over 375 members of our community joined us in making the "Toast to the Library" a success.

Sorry Mike there is no room for a shelter.

Bc3 Golf Scramble

This year's BC3 Golf Scramble will be held at Del Mar Golf Course on June 5th 2010. With a little work we will be able to honor our commitment of a $10,000.00 endowment. Not only do we need our members to golf in the scramble we will need members working the course and help Carl and Johnny cook lamb at the Del Mar shelter that day. If you think your company can sponsor a team or tee sign(s) and have not been contacted by the Ellwood City Wolves please see Tony J. Celli

Ellwood City (Carl's) Arts, Crafts and Food Festival

The 2010 Arts Craft and Food Festival is scheduled for July 2nd, 3rd & 4th. Believe me when I tell you Carl is already working on this year's festival and has assignments out to a couple of his committees. Please make your plans now to join us; to be successful we need a commitment from the entire den. Carl guarantees you a great time. Did I hear someone say "Beer Batter Chicken?"

Wolves Shelter Expansion

It will soon be time to get everyone together at our shelter to work on phase four of our building. Work will also be done in the kitchen area we will be adding shelving and installing a donated electric dishwasher to make Dario and Tom's job a little easier. Your help would be greatly appreciated.
